

Do you know Jesus ?

The question, “Do you know Jesus?” is probably the single most important question a person can ask you. If the answer is an unequivocal, “Yes!” You are to be congratulated for you have taken hold of the most precious gift ever to be offered to anyone who ever lived. You are not only a person who is eternally living, but one who is tied to an eternal family.

But what if your answer is, “no?”

What if you say, “Well, I believe he existed” and “I believe he was a good man and wise teacher”? What then?¹ I would respond, “Yes, He was the greatest and wisest teacher who ever walked the earth.” But as a wise teacher, have you ever considered what He said?

¹ See “So What? ... has God got to do with me?” -- another tract on SMGolden.com
<http://smgolden.com/documents/So-What-Has-God-Got-To-Do-With-Me.pdf>

Indeed, was he just a good man and wise teacher? Various people have done remarkable jobs in documenting the truth and life of Jesus Christ. One in particular is Lee Strobel in The Case for Christ.² In the book, Mr. Strobel relates a statement by C.S. Lewis³ that the one thing Jesus Christ is not is just a good teacher. C.S. Lewis says,

“A man who was merely a man and said the sort of things Jesus said would not be a great moral teacher. He would either be a lunatic - on the level with a man who says he is a poached egg - or he would be the devil of hell. You must take your choice. Either this was, and is, the Son of God, or else a madman or something worse. You can shut Him up for a fool or you can fall at His feet and call Him Lord and God. But let us not come with any patronizing nonsense about His being a great human teacher. He has not left that open to us.”

Jesus said He was the Son of God. He said it in such certain terms the Pharisees attempted to kill him for saying it. (Luke 22:70) In John 8:58, Jesus declared

² The Case For Christ <http://tinyurl.com/yh7xwqw>

³ C.S. Lewis <http://www.cslewis.org/>

“I tell you the truth ...before Abraham was born, I am!”

Jesus did not say, “Before Abraham was, I was.” He said, “... I am.” Why did He say that? Because the word which is rendered “I Am” is the very name of God that the Jews, in reverence, would not say. This is the name God proclaimed of himself to Moses upon the mountain before He sent him to Pharaoh. (Exodus 3:14) There was no question in the Pharisees’ minds Jesus was claiming to be God.

Jesus, the Son of God:

“All things have been committed to me by my Father. No one knows who the Son is except the Father, and no one knows who the Father is except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.”

—Luke 10:22

“I and the Father are one.”

—John 10:30

“...Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father.

—John 14:9

So if Jesus claimed to be God, and the Son of God, there are three possible conclusions you may reach: He was crazy, He was evil, or He is God.

1. He was crazy if he truly believed he was God and was not.
2. He was evil if he claimed he was God but knew he was not.
3. He was truthful, and He is God.

If he was crazy, you should discount him as being anyone of significance. If he was evil, you should reject him and his teachings as unworthy of recognition. But if the third case is true, that He is God, you should carefully understand what He had to say, and what He has to offer.

We all fall short of God's requirement for eternal life. God requires perfect righteousness.

"For all have sinned and fall short of the Glory of God."
—Romans 3:23

Although we deserve death, that is, eternal separation from God, God offers us the gift of eternal life!

"For the wages of sin is death, but the Gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus, our Lord."
—Romans 6:23

He has already set it up for us! We don't have to become good enough to deserve it!

"While we were still sinners, Christ died for us"
—Romans 5:8

Jesus did it for us "because by one sacrifice he has made perfect forever those who are being made holy."
—Hebrews 10:14

Jesus said, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."
—John 14:6

The Apostle Peter tells us, "...there is no other name under heaven given to men by which we must be saved."
—Acts 4:12

What must you do to be saved?

"...Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved—you and your household." Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all the others in his house. ...then immediately he and all his family were baptized.⁴
—Acts 16:30-33

So, do you know Jesus?

That's a question with eternal implications. That's the question facing you today.

For questions and comments, feel free to contact me at <http://www.smgolden.com>.

You are hereby granted permission to reprint and distribute this tract freely in its present form.

Copyright © 11 March 2010 Stephen M. Golden
<http://www.smgolden.com>

⁴ See Baptism—Is it necessary? -- another tract on SMGolden.com - <http://www.smgolden.com/documents/Baptism-Is-It-Necessary.pdf>